

Michelle Krayniak-Sarabia

I have been teaching for two years. My first year of teaching, I taught kindergarten at East Canyon Elementary. Last year I taught first grade at Central Canyon Elementary.

I received my B. S. in Elementary Education at Nova Southeastern University in Las Vegas, Nevada with a 3.8 GPA. Prior to moving to Idaho in 2007, I lived in Las Vegas for 20 years, waitressing for 18 of those years.

I have two wonderful children: Olivia, will attend Bishop Kelly High School this school year, and Joseph, who attends Saint Paul's.

I enjoy teaching young children and my philosophy is to help each child reach his or her maximum potential. Within the next year I will begin my Master's Degree Program in Reading. Besides teaching young children, I enjoy playing basketball, as well as, coaching. My family faithfully attends Saint Paul's Church and I look forward to teaching in an environment where faith in God comes first.
