

Meet Mrs. Susan Sutton

“I am originally from California. I graduated from St. Joseph’s Catholic High School and from Cal Poly State University with a B.A. in Liberal Studies. I was a teacher for the College School District in Santa Ynez, California, from 1992-2000, where I taught grades K-2. Since 2002, I have lived in Boise with my husband Matt, and my three children. We attend Risen Christ church, where I have taught 4th grade religious education for the past three years. I have also been a substitute for the Boise School District and have taught in grades K-8. For the past two summers, I have taught art classes for grades K-3 at Grace Jordan Elementary School in Boise. I enjoy hiking, swimming, playing with my kids, and dinners with my family. I am very excited to teach kindergarten this Fall and to be working at Saint Paul’s Catholic School.”
