

Mrs. Quarve has music degrees from both NNU and the University of Idaho. Her music experience ranges from professional performance to church music to teaching. Most recently, she has served as a musician at St. Paul's Church, been accompanist and adjunct at NNU, taught private piano lessons and taught elementary music at St. Paul's School since 2008.

Continuing education in the last six years has included Church History class (ACE--Diocese of Boise/Fr. Hugh Feiss, 2004), Orff for music teachers (NSD in-service, 2008), Safe Environment – Diocese of Boise (2008), Vocal Symposium at NNU (2009), Diction class at NNU (2009), Idaho Music Teacher's Convention (one session, 2010).